PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Friends,

As you look through the pages of your 2016 Annual Report, know that each home repaired and every heart touched this past year only happened through your loyal support, service and prayers. From the life-changing stories to the impressive statistics and figures, this report is a celebration of the love and charity you have for struggling families living in Central Appalachia.

Reflecting back on 2016, I am reminded of Luke's gospel and Jesus' heeding to believers that God demands much from those who've been given much. As a ministry, ASP has been blessed beyond what I could've ever hoped for or imagined. Our volunteers, staff and supporters have laid a remarkable foundation of extraordinary compassion and generosity that only grows with each passing year.

So when severe flooding devastated the small town of Rainelle, West Virginia in June 2016, God knew that ASP would be there to be His hands and feet before the first raindrop fell. And while I understood that our ministry's abundance and faithfulness to His Word would provide an outpouring of relief and comfort for these families in their darkest hour, I was astounded by the depth of resources, and new partnerships, that have powered our ongoing efforts to rebuild Rainelle and surrounding areas.

“From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded.” Luke 12:48

You see, at its core, ASP will always be a ministry that inspires hope and service through volunteer home repair, especially during the warm summer months when youth volunteers from around the country come to these mountains to work. But during our 48 years of service throughout Appalachia, we have also built a large and exceptional family – a broad network of good, kind-hearted friends like you who empower and inspire this organization to reach new, unimaginable heights each year. I am humbled by how many individuals – donors, volunteers, church groups, financial partners and staff members – have come together to help in this extraordinary relief effort in West Virginia.

In this report, you can read an update and see photos of our response to the flash flooding that ravaged an entire community – hundreds of businesses and homes destroyed by the raging waters last summer. Our emergency response and long-term recovery efforts in Rainelle are just one of the many ways you made a difference through ASP last year.

With this report, we honor you, our supporters, who understand what's at stake and what it takes to keep moving forward. Together, we are a force of hope and transformation for families in great need. Thank you for being an ambassador of Christ's love by your continued support of ASP.

Blessings always,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'W. B. Crouch', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Walter B. Crouch
President/CEO

MISSION STATEMENT

Appalachia Service Project is a Christian ministry, open to all people, that inspires hope and service through volunteer home repair in Central Appalachia.

OUR VISION

Appalachia Service Project's vision is that substandard housing in Central Appalachia will be eradicated and that everyone who comes into contact with this ministry will be transformed.

STATEMENT OF VALUES

We believe that each person is a child of God imbued with dignity and worth.

We accept people right where they are and just the way they are.

We believe that affordable, safe, sanitary housing is a basic human right.

We are committed to witness through the good quality of our work and careful stewardship of our resources.

We believe God calls volunteers to serve others as partners in ministry and we will encourage their growth in faith as they are involved in this service.

We believe where ASP is involved in local communities we will encourage, affirm, and support social and economic justice.

CONNECT. BUILD. TRANSFORM.

So many families throughout Appalachia live in houses without adequate plumbing or heat... where holes in the roof and walls let in the cold of freezing rain, wind, and snow. Your generosity is meeting these practical needs – restoring homes and hope in the Appalachian mountains.

Your support makes the good work of TRANSFORMATION possible:

You transform the circumstances of our recipient families, making their homes warmer, safer and drier.

You transform the hearts of volunteers, providing an immersive experience that will last a lifetime.

You transform attitudes about poverty in our country, creating awareness and advocating for those who rarely have a voice.

Here are two such families whose lives you transformed in 2016...

Anne puts everything she has into caring for her family. This loving grandmother shares her home with her son, Nick, and his four children. Anne knew her grandkids needed a safe space to sleep and play. But after the death of her husband, she just couldn't afford to fix up the house where they all lived. Her son helped out as much as he could, but it was barely enough to get by. Because of your generosity, ASP was able to make Anne's home livable again. New floors, siding, and a beautiful front door have brought warmth, comfort and untold joy into the hearts of Anne's family.

Years ago, when Risa and Rick realized they couldn't have children of their own, they became foster parents. Soon, they got a reputation for taking in "the unlovables" – kids who no one else wanted. These kids – all eleven of them – have special needs of some kind. This super-sized family was living in an unsafe, abandoned four-plex when their prayers were answered. Your compassion brought "angels in blue jeans" from ASP into their lives in such a powerful way. Caring volunteers transformed their home while bringing this family a new beginning!

WARMER

"My home was falling apart. I appreciated everything ASP has done to my home and I really needed the help. Now when winter comes, we won't freeze to death."

– Melissa, KY

SAFER

"Life is easier! Our drains work! We can turn on faucets! We can flip a switch and have light! We can sit on our porch! We are no longer ashamed of how our home looks. I want to say we are very appreciative of everything and hopefully some day we can pay it forward."

– John & Paty, WV

DRIER

"The volunteers did a miracle for our home. We don't have to worry about our roof leaking and the floors falling in. The drainage ditch is keeping water away from my home. May God bless them for their hard work, time, effort and support."

– Larry, WV

Here in Appalachia, angels wear blue jeans and sneakers and spend a week, a month, or even just a weekend blessing families in need with vital home repair. One family described their ASP volunteer work crew as their “angels in blue jeans.” We can’t imagine a better description of these amazing teens and adults who give their time, money and hard work to help children and families throughout this poverty-stricken area. Each year, some 16,000 angels arrive on the scene here in Appalachia so they can make hundreds of homes warmer, safer and drier for families living in desperate situations.

ANGELS in Blue Jeans

"You will most certainly come home a changed person. Not only because of what you and your team have accomplished, but the lives you will change; from the folks whose home you will work on to the young people whose lives YOU will see changed. "

*– David Bigam
ASP adult volunteer*

"I owe a lot of my happiness and joy to the ASP community. This mission experience isn't just about helping others but also about finding yourself in the process."

*– Mollie June
ASP youth volunteer*

REBUILDING RAINELLE, WV

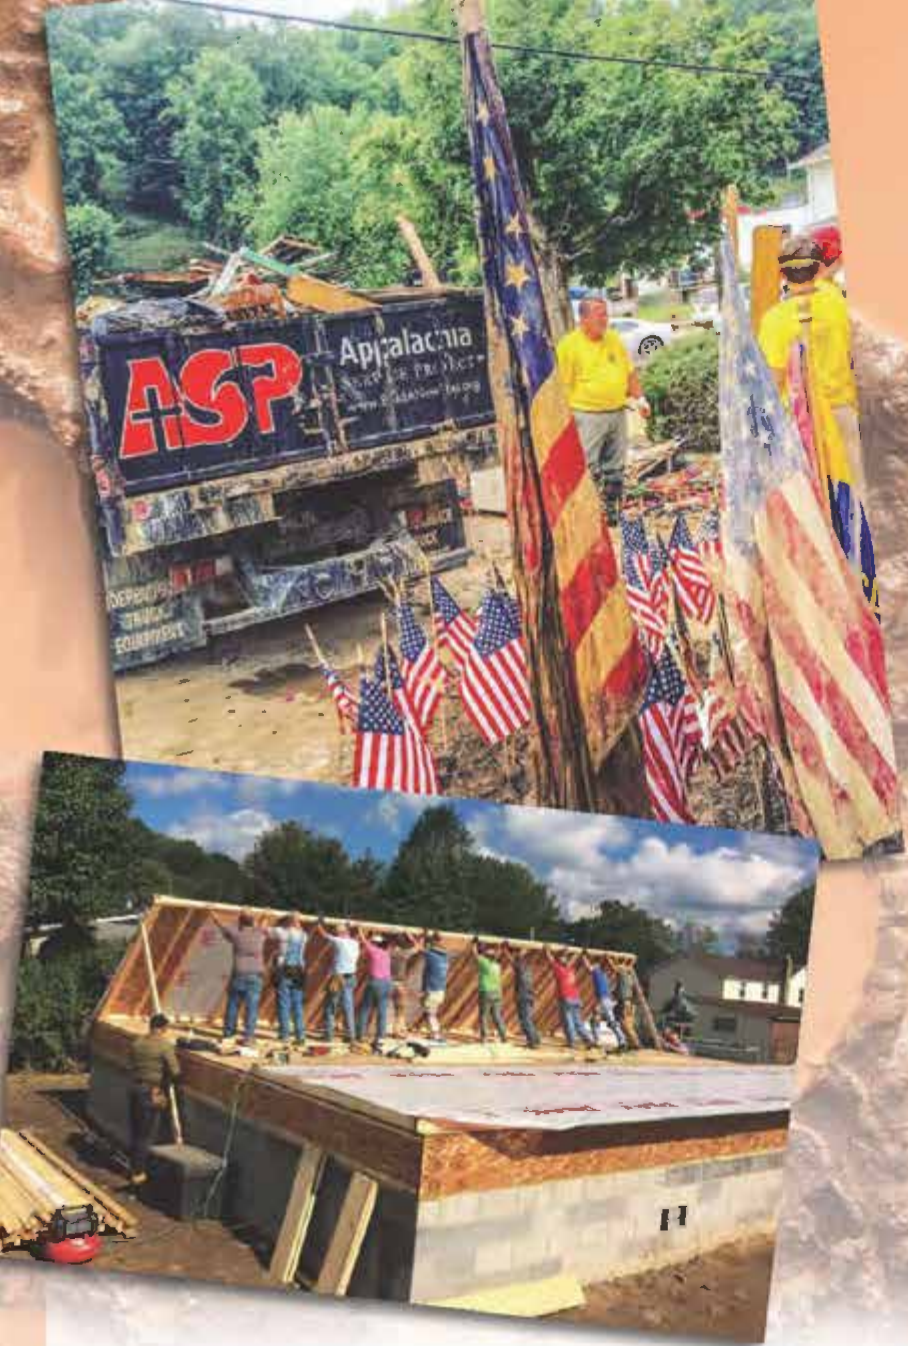

Rebuilding Rainelle is Appalachia Service Project's long term recovery effort to help rebuild the community of Rainelle, the epicenter of last June's deadly flood in West Virginia.

The flood – one of the worst in state history – destroyed over 1,000 homes statewide and took the lives of 23 people. Rainelle was devastated, including 90% of the homes near the downtown area.

ASP staff and volunteers have served in Rainelle the last two summers, developing strong relationships with many families in the community. So it was only natural for us to step up our efforts in response to the unexpected disaster.

"It's been so unpredictable, so humbling and so fulfilling to see the ever-changing nature and scope of this recovery project.

Thanks to the donors and volunteers who have made it possible. People are coming from across the country to volunteer their time and resources – from professional contractors to those with zero construction experience. So many people who want only to help."

– Chris Schroeder
ASP Fellow & Center Director
in Greenbrier

Rebuilding Rainelle by the Numbers:

-  17 new homes completed
-  7 major repairs completed
-  27 New homes #18 – #27 in process
-  50 New homes planned to be built in Rainelle (Greenbrier county)
-  Broke ground mid-February on new homes in Richwood, WV (Nicholas county, where ASP has worked the last 3 summers)
-  10 Plan to build 5 – 10 new homes in Richwood, in addition to the 50 homes in Rainelle

Many of Rainelle's low-income homeowners are unable to rebuild their homes because they have no insurance, are unable to qualify for emergency loans and have few personal resources. These families are the focus of ASP's longer term recovery efforts to build or rebuild 50 homes in Rainelle and 10 others in nearby Richwood.

The new homes are "gifts of grace." No mortgages are involved, so it's a fresh start for families who lost everything.

By the end of 2016, seventeen houses had been completed and the work is moving forward, full steam ahead. Thank you for helping us to lift up good people as they rebuild their lives and homes!

IN GRATITUDE FOR YOUR GOOD WORKS

In Christ, we receive God's grace through our faith and become God's handiwork – His work of art. However, we are not created to be admired or viewed as a piece of art, but each one of us has been prepared for a purpose. God has called us to serve.

In the following pages, and with our deepest gratitude, we acknowledge essential and valued partners of this ministry who've been faithful to His command to serve others. Thank you for all you do!

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU TO OUR

Established in 2005 and named for ASP's founder, the Rev. Glenn "Tex" Evans, the Tex Evans Society is a group of donors who have made plans for a legacy gift to ASP and are recognized here.

Monthly donations from Carpenter's Club members provide ASP with a steady income that allows us to make even more homes warmer, safer and drier.

"I hated for them to leave. I grew very fond of them. I can sit on my porch without getting wet. It don't leak in my house now and the room they fixed is beautiful. I think you were sent by God to fix my house, because I prayed so hard to be able to fix my house."
