President's Message

ASP Family & Friends,

For many, 2020 will be remembered for two things: a global pandemic, and Appalachia Service Project canceling our summer program for the first time in our 51-year history.

We made that decision with the safety of our volunteers, families and staff as our highest priority. Canceling summer operations because of the COVID-19 pandemic meant that we faced the loss of millions of dollars of revenue that threatened ASP's existence.

But I will remember 2020 for something else—the miraculous nature of God's providence and the tenacity of the human spirit when faced with adversity.

It is not the easy times in life that define who we are, but the most difficult times. Our Board, our staff, our churches and groups, our supporters ... all stepped up in ways that inspired me and ensured the long-term sustainability of ASP's mission.

What looked dark and foreboding in the spring of last year turned into the brilliance of a financial miracle at year's end. Churches and groups, who were understanding and supportive of our summer cancellation, donated their mission fees back to ASP even though there would be no summer program.

With many people laid off and most small businesses suffering, we were bracing for the worst. But, as God would have it, 2020 turned out to be our best year ever from the financial gifts of partners like you. Your faithfulness inspired us all.

You—the ASP family—stepped up to meet the greatest challenge we (and many others) have ever faced as an organization. The fire of adversity refined the precious golden strand that holds us all together. ASP truly is a relationship ministry, and the challenge of 2020 revealed the strength of those relationships. For that we are all grateful.

While we were unable to host volunteers last summer, we felt called to find ways to serve Appalachian families and deployed some of our full-time staff and Fellows to the field to provide direct service to families in need. We were not able to reach as many families as during a "normal" summer, but for the 61 families served it meant they did not have to continue waiting for homes that were warm, safe and dry.

Summer 2021 has seen some return to normality, but there are still hundreds of families living in conditions that no one should have to bear.

We solicit your prayers and support... and really hope to see many, many more of you on worksites again in 2022!

In Service Together,
Walter Crouch

—Poverty, Potential and a Preacher named Tex

In 1969, Rev. Glenn “Tex” Evans—a Methodist minister—became one of the first people to connect the energy of youth with the deep needs of the poor.

During Tex’s 13 years as director at Henderson Settlement in Frakes, Kentucky, he witnessed the great need for home repair assistance. So as part of his already-thriving outreach to the people of Appalachia, he recruited 50 teens and adult volunteers to repair homes in Barbourville, Kentucky. They worked on-site during the day and worshiped in the evenings. By summer’s end, four families had safe, warm homes for the winter, 50 young lives had been changed forever—and a longstanding legacy was born.

But Tex was more than a leader; he was a born motivator. A true student of Appalachian culture and a legendary storyteller, he set the tone for what ASP is today: *an extended family where laughter is king. Where relationships matter. And where changing the lives of families and volunteers alike is the highest priority of all.

“We accept people right where they are,
just the way they are.” —Tex Evans

Our philosophy of service has remained the same since our founding: ASP encourages people to act responsibly in the face of human need and injustice.

By transforming faith into ASP service, volunteers respond to a specific need: housing. By putting aside their own needs and desires, ASP volunteers free themselves to share talent, love, and concern with the people of Appalachia and with one another.

More important than construction know-how is a willingness to enter the communities and homes of Central Appalachia with sensitivity, concern, and love—accepting people right where they are and just the way they are.

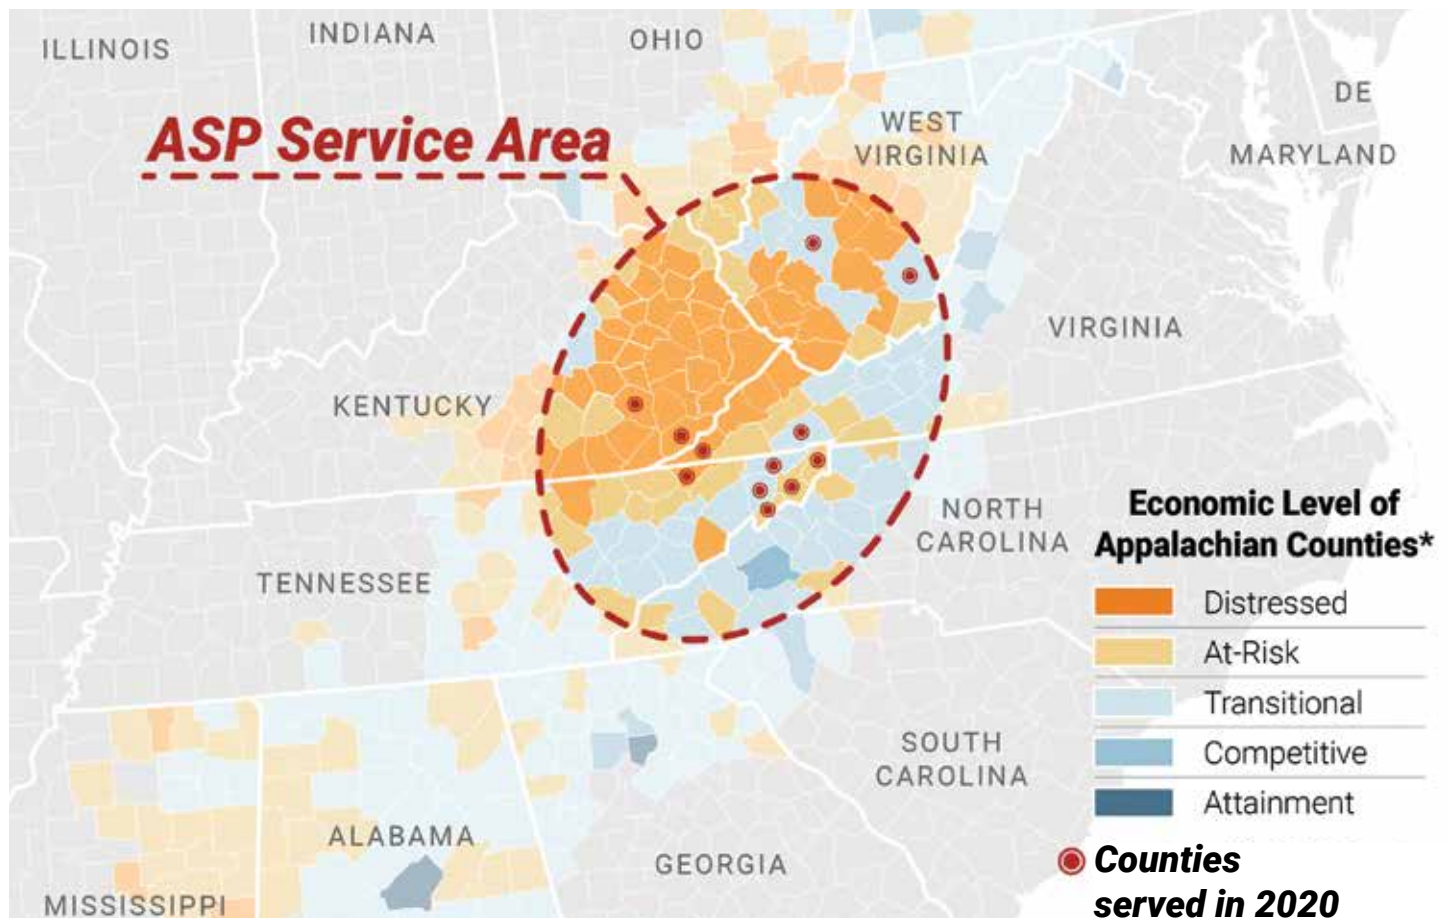

Since 1969, more than 440,000 volunteers from across the nation have repaired more than 19,000 homes and, in the process, Appalachian families, volunteers, and staff have been immeasurably blessed. No one walks away from the ASP experience unchanged.

Where We Serve

Each year, ASP typically hosts more than 15,000 volunteers working in Central Appalachian Kentucky, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia, serving over 350 families with home repairs and new home construction.

During summer 2020 when ASP was unable to host volunteers, full-time staff & Fellows deployed to the field to provide direct service to families in need. They served in 12 communities, focusing on exterior repair projects and those interior projects that could be accomplished safely, as well as new home construction.

Home Repairs Change Lives

The year 2020 started off like any other. We had a full slate of college-aged and adult volunteers scheduled for the spring, and more than 12,000 scheduled for the summer. But the COVID-19 pandemic dramatically changed all that. For the first time in ASP history, we canceled hosting summer volunteers.

What the pandemic didn't change was Appalachian families' need for home repair. So we deployed teams of our staff and Fellows to provide critical home repairs for families throughout the summer, and hired contractors to supplement those efforts.

Gracious friends like you made this work possible. Thank you.

New Build & Disaster Recovery

Through ASP's New Build programs, you are lifting up families living in poverty and providing them with the gift of a new home. ASP is able to build these homes using a combination of grants, private gifts from friends like you, and volunteer labor. And when homes in Central Appalachia are devastated by flash floods, raging fires or other natural disasters, friends like you allow ASP to make long-term commitments to serve families in need.

From home repairs to brand new construction, you assist in rebuilding entire communities, one home at a time.

2020 Heroes in Action

When facing a summer without ASP volunteers, ASP staff and Fellows committed to serving as many Appalachian families as possible. It meant living and working in small groups, isolating together to limit the potential spread of COVID-19. It wasn't always easy, but this impressive group of people made it work.

Our hats are off to you—our faithful partners and friends—for providing the financial resources that made that work possible. And our hats are off to them—our staff and Fellows—for being the hands and feet of Christ in Appalachia.

*Brock is a long-term volunteer who was spending his sabbatical with ASP when COVID-19 hit. Thank you Brock!

Thankful for You

You—our faithful partners and volunteers—are the heart of Appalachia Service Project's ministry. In a world that can be so divided, you are agents of peace and acceptance. Seeing Christ in the eyes of the families we serve. And treating each with dignity, care and love through your steadfast efforts and service.

We are taught that giving and sharing are the ways of God. By opening your heart to families in Central Appalachia, you follow in Christ's footsteps—mirroring His actions with an outpouring of love.

In the following pages, and with our deepest gratitude, we acknowledge essential and valued partners of this ministry who've been faithful to His command to put love into action by helping our neighbors in need.

I am sure that the One who began a good work in you will carry it on until it is completed. That will be on the day Christ Jesus returns.

“If it wasn’t for ASP, our home

—Hazel

Hazel and her husband Dwayne have lived in their home for more than 40 years. They remained steadfast through a flood in their early years together, the loss of one of their four children in a tragic car accident, and Dwayne’s kidney failure. Throughout all of their difficulties, Hazel believed that God was in control.

Their daughter was able to find them help through ASP—and you! Your support for Appalachia Service Project makes it possible for God to carry His love and grace into the lives of good people in need like Hazel and her family.

A new roof, new floors and new steps on the back porch gave Hazel and her family new hope.

“ASP are like angels who have been sent to me.” —Angela

For Angela, a mother and recent widow, it was your support that transformed her home and life.

When we visited Angela, her roof had been leaking so much that she was standing in water up to her ankles! Her home was cold, damp, and unsafe.

She was still mourning the death of her husband and trying to raise their kids in a home that needed substantial repairs. She had lost hope in nearly every area of her life.

Because of you, Angela's life and her home have been transformed.

“ASP are like angels who have been sent to me. They've got a special place in my heart,” Angela told us. “Now the house is actually warm.”

Today, Angela no longer has to worry about keeping her family safe. Instead, their home is warmer, safer, and drier than it's ever been.

“This is the first time in my life it's ever been this warm,” she told us after a particularly cold and snowy 15°F night.

Your support has ensured Central Appalachian families like Angela's are not forgotten. Thank you for making this work possible!

Volunteer Group Partners

"THANK YOU!"

These words don't seem like enough to convey our feelings for the volunteer group partners who reached out to us in generosity and kindness in 2020 when we were forced to cancel our summer program.

It is no small thing to have received these gifts of love—love for the mission and vision of ASP, love for the families we serve, love for the staff who have faithfully continued working during a pandemic.

Because of YOU ... our doors have remained open, and we have been able to continue serving families throughout Central Appalachia.

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you!

Sometimes families only tell us about their most urgent home repair needs—but don't mention other critical repairs. That happened with a sweet couple in Charleston, West Virginia.

The first summer we met Prince and Michelle, we repaired their collapsing roof. Only later did we learn that they had been living for six years without a functioning bathroom.

They never thought they'd have to ask for this kind of help, but when our staff showed up in the middle of a health crisis, ready to continue the repairs we started, this family regained something they haven't felt for a long time... hope.

Complete with a new roof, safe floors, interior walls, and a ceiling, their home is now warmer, safer, and drier because of your support. And for the first time since 2014, they have a functioning bathroom and hot and cold water throughout their home.

If you ever wonder what your generosity and care make possible, this is it! Friends like you help address deep worries and sleepless nights for the families we serve.

Mission

Appalachia Service Project is a Christian ministry, open to all people, that inspires hope and service through volunteer home repair and replacement in Central Appalachia.

Vision

Appalachia Service Project envisions the eradication of substandard housing in Central Appalachia and the transformation of everyone who comes in contact with this ministry.

Guiding Principles

- » We believe that each person is a child of God imbued with dignity and worth.
- » We accept people right where they are and just the way they are.
- » We believe that all people should be able to live in affordable, safe, and sanitary housing.
- » We are committed to witness through the good quality of our work and careful stewardship of our resources.
- » We believe God calls people to serve others as volunteer partners in ministry and we will encourage their growth in faith as they answer this call.
- » Where ASP is involved in local communities we will encourage, affirm, and support the fair and just treatment of people.
- » We believe in ministering in the spirit of love, acceptance, and hopefulness.

Non-Discrimination Statement

Because ASP believes everyone is a child of God, all are welcome to participate respectfully and peacefully with ASP, regardless of race, color, religion, gender identity, sex, age, national origin, ethnicity, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status.
